UNICO INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Lifelong Learning in the Knowledge Era: Theoretical and Practical Implications for Language Education

21-23 October, Siberian Federal University, Krasnoyarsk, Russia

This UNICO international conference is organized and financed by the Siberian Federal University and the partnership of the TEMPUS project “Lifelong Language Learning University Centre Network for New Career Opportunities and Personal Development (UNICO)” (project number 544283-TEMPUS-1-2013-1-ES-TEMPUS-JPHE).

The conference brings together academic and educational developers, politicians, employers, employees, and language learners to discuss contemporary things in the field of lifelong learning for the knowledge society in general, and language education in particular. The forum provides an ideal venue for establishing collaboration between the burgeoning Russian LLL professional community and its international counterparts, as well as between stakeholders at the local, national and international level.
