

University students won the first prize at a city competition

First year students from Siberian Federal University won the first prize at the city competition of student theatrical performance and sketch comedy. They competed against the representatives of seven institutions of higher education located in Krasnoyarsk. The students were charming, intelligent and funny. They performed one of the best sketches during the event, a short comedy made of a French song.

26 november 2007

© Siberian federal university. Website editorial staff: +7 (391) 246-98-60, info@sfu-kras.ru.

Web page address: <https://news.sfu-kras.ru/node/2505>