

Spanish Language Centre in SibFU

The SibFU Spanish Language Centre was established in Siberian Federal University within the framework of the programme referred to broadening of international ties. On September 24, 2008, Siberian Federal University and Banco Santander signed an agreement on cooperation in order to support educational and research projects and to promote academic exchange.

Banco Santander founded over 150 years ago is nowadays the largest bank in Euro area in terms of market capitalization and the seventh bank in the world in terms of operating income. International network of Banco Santander is one of the largest in the world and it enumerates 10, 852 branches and offices.

One of the high priorities of its work is the cooperation with universities and research institutions aimed at supporting educational, research and technological projects fulfilled through the Santander Universities Global Division.

Department of International Affairs, 26 august 2009

© Siberian federal university. Website editorial staff: +7 (391) 246-98-60, info@sfu-kras.ru.

Web page address: <https://news.sfu-kras.ru/node/4646>